

Dear Colleagues,

With so many questions surrounding implementation of the pending Title 5 regulations on repeatability, we have decided to initiate a discussion board on the ASCCC Curriculum website. This discussion board provides an opportunity for individuals to publicly post questions and comments on repeatability and receive timely responses. David Morse and I will be moderating the discussion board as the past and current ASCCC Curriculum Committee chairs. We hope that by holding the discussion in a public forum, we will be able to help curriculum chairs, discipline faculty, and administrators implement the proposed repeatability changes effectively and efficiently. To access the Repeatability Discussion Board, please follow this link: <http://www.ccccurriculum.net/repeatability-discussion-board/>

In addition, the Senate will be holding two regional meetings. Below is information about the agenda, location, and registration for these regional meetings:
